Costumes On Sale from the Old Globe

If you feel like going all out this Halloween, don a designer costume from the stage at the Old Globe's sale. From 8 am to 2 pm on October 14 in the Lowell Davies Festival Theatre, scope and buy handmade costumes that were used for past Globe productions such as "Lucky Duck," "Hamlet," "Our Town," "Macbeth" and more. These costumes will probably cost you a pretty penny, but will look better than the ol' sheet with two eye holes. The Old Globe is located at 1363 Old Globe Way in Balboa Park.

Sally's On The Water at the Manchester Grand Hyatt

On an isolated "island" between the Hyatt and Seaport Village, in fair weather you'll catch great marina views from the terrace of Sally's on the Water. Under inventive young French chef Fabrice Tissier, the fare is California-French with a summery Provençal accent and an accent on seafood. Don't miss the exquisite crab cakes or the classic bouillabaisse. If you'd like to know what the chef can do when he isn't limited by the tastes of hotel diners, with 72 hours to a week's notice you can book "The Chef's Table" inside the kitchen for six to twelve people and collaborate with him on a custom menu. Sally's interior is hard-edged modern and can be noisy. Sally's also has a full bar and a good mainly California wine list. Sally's is located at the Manchester Grand Hyatt, 1 Market Place adjacent to Seaport Village, downtown. Contact your Concierge for reservations.

Miramar Air Show, October 13-15

Enjoy Fall Oktoberfest in Julian

Traditionally, October starts the rush of locals and tourists to this picturesque, local spot of fall. Even though it's nothing like an East Coast color show, it's all we've got and we celebrate it with gusto. The Julian Oktoberfest -- a great way to ring in the changing of the seasons -- takes place October 7 and 8 with an oom pah pah band, dancers and traditional German and Austrian food and drink. The Julian October Fest is held in the parking lot of the Rabobank at 2033 Main Street in Julian from 10 am to 4 pm. Contact your Concierge for more information or directions.

Miramar Air Show, A Must See

Don't miss the Miramar Air Show October 13, 14 and 15 celebrating more than 100 years of flight. This popular air show features the Navy's Blue Angels, the F-117 Nighthawk Stealth Fighter and the F-16 Fighting Falcon. Public shows begin at 9:30 am and Saturday's twilight presentation begins at 5:30 pm. You'll see an extravagant pyrotechnic display conclude with the "Great Wall of Fire," which made the 2000 "Guinness Book of World Records" for Longest Wall of Fire, at 2,500 feet. There will be more than 100 airplanes and military vehicles on display, flight-simulation machines to play with, and lots of vendors selling souvenirs. Admission to the Miramar Air Show and the Blanket Seating areas is free, though reserved "premium" seating is available -- including Grandstands, Box Seats, Observation Deck, Flight Deck and Semper Fi Chalets. Contact your Concierge for details.

Dylan and Buffett: Big Names Come to San Diego

"Modern Times" is an ideal name for Bob Dylan's often-enchanting new album. Remember, this timeless troubadour sounded wise and world-weary well beyond his 22 years in 1963. At the age of 65, Dylan has retained his youthful passion for music, the more rootsy the better, while embracing and slyly mocking his elder-statesman status. Bob Dylan will play at Cox Arena on the campus of San Diego State University on October 22. Tickets run $35 to $65.

Jimmy Buffett, who became an American pop-music staple with "Margaritaville," his 1977 anthem of tropical debauchery, has a huge national concert following called the Parrotheads. More than music and zany outfits, Parrothead-dom is a celebratory way of life. To a neophyte Buffett concertgoer, all the fuss might seem a mystery. But to his many devotees, attending a Buffett concert is as American as Mom, apple pie and mai-tais. Coors Amphitheatre in Chula Vista will feature Jimmy Buffett on October 26. Tickets run $36 to $126. Your Concierge can assist with all ticket purchases.
